

Dear Family,

Nov 14

So we just got done with dodge ball. The best exercise ever but I know you asked a ton of questions but I can't remember none. But everything here really is doing ok. Reggie and Ernest should be getting baptized here soon. The date was ^{put off} but because the Bishop is dumb we had to push it back. but I think we'll just make it earlier. The entire bishopric know we had this date for weeks and they don't even care. So I feel this would do just as you can tell don't like them very much. But don't worry I'm being nice. The end of the transfer is coming up and I know Sis Mills will be leaving and I'll have to be the one to know where every thing is. This will be an interesting transfer since the new Stake has come in. So new missionaries so it will be funny to see Ceese call of Don are freckles and Ceese Nabe don't have the same sandiness that they had before. It's hilarious to hear them
